

New Titles for Middle-Grade Readers

Oscar Wilde

Cuentos de Oscar Wilde

(Short Stories by Oscar Wilde)

ISBN: 9789580423782

112pp | PB | $12.99 | GRL: X

BISAC: JUVENILE FICTION / Classics

GL:
5-8

This volume is comprised of six short stories that have become literary classics: "The Nightingale and the Rose," "The Happy Prince," "The Remarkable Rocket," "The Young King," "The Devoted Friend," and "The Selfish Giant." These magical and emotional stories have captivated millions of readers around the world throughout time. With this volume, they will invite young adults to discuss complex issues such as tolerance, kindness, and honesty.

Sergio Aguirre

La señora Pinkerton ha desaparecido

(Mrs. Pinkerton Has Disappeared)

ISBN: 9789587760163

104pp | PB | $12.99 | GRL: U

BISAC: JUVENILE FICTION /

Thrillers & Suspense

GL:
5-8

Cranky Mrs. Pinkerton is particularly anxious today. She is convinced that a real witch has moved next door. Edmund, her son who lives nearby, is skeptic but listens to his mother's stories anyway, giving him more reasons to think that she may have gone mad... Until something goes terribly wrong when Edmund goes out to find his daughter in the middle of storm. A novel by master of suspense Sergio Aguirre, this novel will keep young adults riveted till the end.

Robert Louis Stevenson

El diablo de la botella

(The Devil in the Bottle)

ISBN: 9789580408550

64pp | PB | $12.99 | GRL: U

BISAC: JUVENILE FICTION /

Classics / Mysteries & Detective Stories

GL:
5-8

At the center of this story we find an odd-shaped bottle with supernatural powers. Whoever owns it may have all sorts of treasures—but at a cost so high that no one wants it. Stevenson's works speak of worlds inhabited by strange beings that are all too human. This classic will captivate readers with its fast-paced narrative, mystery and suspense. A solid introduction to fantastic literature.

Ramón García Domínguez

¡Por todos los dioses...!

(For All the Gods...)

ISBN: 9789580407379

102pp | PB | $12.99 | GRL: W

BISAC: JUVENILE FICTION /

Legends, Myths, Fables - Greek & Roman

GL:
5-8

The gods and heroes from Mount Olympus come to life in a dialog between a curious young man and Homer himself as he is transported to current times. As Homer retells the stories of Icarus, Zeus, Hera and others, the symbolism behind the famous tales becomes clear. Narrated with clarity and wit, this fast-paced read is the perfect introduction to Greek mythology and The Iliad and The Odyssey.

Stefan Wilfert & Chris Mewes

El laberinto de los acertijos

(The Riddles Labyrinth)

ISBN: 9789580481720

160pp | PB | $12.99 | GRL: V

BISAC: JUVENILE FICTION /

Action & Adventure - General

GL:
5-8

Professor Pedro Gutierrez loves his job as riddle master. But when an evil colleague traps him and his family in an underground labyrinth, his skills will be put to the test. A fascinating read for those who like puzzles and mind games, this novel encourages active participation from readers.

Various Authors

Siete habitaciones a oscuras

(Seven Dark Rooms)

ISBN: 9789587760026

144pp | PB | $12.99 | GRL: V

BISAC: JUVENILE FICTION /

Thrillers & Suspense

GL:
5-8

This volume gathers seven stories, one more suspenseful than the next. The settings are different—a videogame, a beach vacation, an abandoned building, the house of an old man about to die, a baby trapped in limbo, a yard swarmed with flies—but the stories are equally horrifying and nerve wracking. The authors skillfully display mystery and suspense to maintain narrative tension; a guaranteed page-turner.