

2016 Caldecott Medal Winner!

GL:
K-5

Lindsay Mattick

Winnie: La verdadera historia del oso más querido del mundo*(Finding Winnie: The True Story of the World's Most Famous Bear)*

ISBN: 9786070132513

56pp | PB | $16.95 | GRL: N

BISAC: JUVENILE NONFICTION / History / Europe / Books & Libraries

Before Winnie-the-Pooh, there was a real bear, rescued by Captain Harry Colebourn on route to World War I, and later was befriended by the real-life Christopher Robin. Told by Colebourn's great-granddaughter, illustrated by Sophie Blackall, and complete with primary documents from the family archive, here is a piece of our literary heritage brought to life.

 Awards

- 2016 Caldecott Medal Winner
- 2016 ALA Notable Books for Children: Younger Readers
- 2015 The New York Times Notable Children's Books: Picture Books
- 2015 Publishers Weekly Best Children's Books (Picture Books)
- Horn Book Fanfare List: Best Books of 2015, Nonfiction
- 2015 Booklist Best Picture Books
- 2015 New York Public Library's 100 Notable Titles for Reading and Sharing, Children's Books
- 2016 Charlotte Zolotow Honor
- 2016 Children's Book Committee Bank Street College of Education Best Children's Books: Historical Fiction
- 2016 Cybils Finalist, Elementary/Juvenile Nonfiction
- 2016 Notable Social Studies Trade Books for Young People, K-2