

Cara y Cruz Series (I)

Each title in this series offers two books in one—Cara introduces readers to the unabridged classic work, and Cruz supports comprehension through literary articles about the work and the author, an author biography, and a comprehensive timeline of the author's life and work in a cultural and historical context.

Various Authors

El nuevo cuento latinoamericano

(The New Latin American Short Story)

ISBN: 9789584517616

253pp | PB | $19.99 | GRL: N/A

BISAC: FICTION /

General / Short Stories (multiple authors) /
Hispanic & Latino / Cultural Heritage

This collection of contemporary short stories showcases the most relevant writers in Latin America today. It takes a step forward from the Latin American Boom authors and presents a series of new and young narrators. Fluently written, these stories are a gateway to the current literary reality in Latin America and they expose universes that young readers can identify with. These authors are part of the new Latin American Literary Boom.

GL:
9-12

Piedad Bonnett (Compiler)

Antología de poesía latinoamericana contemporánea

(Anthology of Contemporary Latin American Poetry)

ISBN: 9789584529893

331pp | PB | $19.99 | GRL: N/A

BISAC: POETRY /

Caribbean & Latin American /Subjects & Themes- General

This selection of engaging poems will educate the reader on the most relevant poetry produced today in Latin America. The two ultimate goals are to introduce readers to a large number of Latin American poets, and to make readers fall in love so they can further research the poets that intrigue them the most.

GL:
9-12

Esteban Echeverría

El matadero

(The Slaughterhouse)

ISBN: 9789580469063

77pp | PB | $19.99 | GRL: N/A

BISAC: FICTION /

Hispanic & Latino / Historical - General /
Literary / Political

A landmark novel, this work was written to denounce Juan Manuel de Rosas' bloody regime in Argentina (1829-1852). Echeverría was one of the most important Romantic authors in Latin America, and his prose captures the reality of his time with intelligence, wit, and sarcasm. An important read to understand later literary movements like Realism and Naturalism, and the literary evolution of Hispanic America in general.

GL:
9-12

Various Authors

Cuento hispanoamericano siglo XIX

(Spanish-American Short Stories: 19th Century)

ISBN: 9789580471356

350pp | PB | $19.99 | GRL: N/A

BISAC: FICTION / General / Short Stories (multiple authors)
/ Literary / Hispanic & Latino / Cultural Heritages

This anthology includes some of the best short stories written during the nineteenth century in Spanish America. Some of these stories are tied to the land and its folklore, others are realistic and rich in detail, and others are rooted in the Modernist movement.

GL:
9-12

Federico García Lorca

Bodas de sangre

(Blood Wedding)

ISBN: 9789580469919

186pp | PB | $19.99 | GRL: N/A

BISAC: DRAMA /

European / Spanish & Portuguese

Deeply rooted in Spain's classic repertory theater, this play is a vivid portrait of Andalusian society in the time of Lorca. In this work, the author steps away from the festive and picaresque spirit and fuses the brilliance of lyrical poetry with a very personal drama. This tragedy presents the tensions within a family, revealing with energetic prose the secret desires and forbidden ideas that haunted people in the 1930s.

GL:
9-12

Ignacio Manuel Altamirano

Clemencia

(Clemencia)

ISBN: 9789580471059

227pp | PB | $19.99 | GRL: N/A

BISAC: FICTION /

Classics / Historical - General / Literary / Political / Hispanic & Latino / Cultural Heritage

Set in Mexico during the French invasion of the 1860s, this historical novel captures in detail the social norms of the times and the characters' psychological traits. This classic novel depicts the struggle of a country to gain its true independence.

GL:
9-12

