Spanish as a World Language

"I can't believe the difference that I'm seeing with [Español Santillana]. My students read and comprehend so much better. They also understand spoken Spanish. The examples and listening examples that are used are so appropriate for each unit. Oh, and the online assignments are graded for me! The automatic grading gives each student individual feedback, and I can see how many times each student completed the assignment. All I can say is WOW! I believe that I can help students become fluent in Spanish starting at this level. I am so excited!...This program is amazing!

Explore Cultures

Buenos días, buenas tardes, buenas noches

- Have students turn to page 18 in their books. Call on a volunteer to read the title, Buenos días, buenas tardes, buenas noches, and then have the class chorally repeat the title after you.
- Read the direction aloud and have students read along. Then read the three dialogues aloud and have students listen. Read them again and have students repeat after you. You may wish to repeat the procedure while students have their books closed.
- Have volunteers read the direction, Conversar. Explain that Buenos días (good morning), buenas tardes (good afternoon), and buenas noches (good evening/good night) are also common Spanish greetings—and, in addition, buenas noches is used to say goodbye.
- Point out that señor (Mr./sir) and señora (Mrs./ma'am) are formal forms of address for teachers, parents, and other adults.
- Point to the scene depicting Lisa and her mother, and explain that in most Spanish-speaking countries it is common for family members or close friends to kiss on the cheek when they greet each other or when they say goodbye.

Multiple Access Strategies

Accessing Concepts Have students point to words and to phrases such as buenos días, buenas tardes, and buenas noches, and ask them to say them back to you.

Accessing Content/Role-Play Have pairs of students take turns role-playing all three dialogues from activity A.

Accessing Critical-Thinking Skills/Role-Play Have pairs of students create their own dialogues using their names. Have them act out the dialogues in front of the class.

Meeting Individual Needs

Benchmark You may assist students having minor difficulties pronouncing the letter ñ in señor and señora by having them pretend the words are spelled senyor and senyora as they try saying them again.

Challenge Call on volunteers to name two objects in the illustrations, such as libros (books) and pelota (ball).

Buenos días, buenas tardes, buenas noches

A. Escucha y repite.

Buenos días, ¿ahí? Buenos días, ¿ahí? Buenos días, ¿ahí?

Buenos días, ¿ahí? Buenos días, ¿ahí? Buenos días, ¿ahí?

Buenos días, ¿ahí? Buenos días, ¿ahí? Buenos días, ¿ahí?

B. Conversa.

Los estudiantes van a:

buenos días, buenas tardes, buenas noches.

señor, señora.

Multiple Intelligences

Logical/Mathematical

Provide copies of the image side of the Tapetas fotográficas that shows a Mexican pyramid. Explain that this pyramid has four triangular sides and a square base, while others, such as Egyptian pyramids, were built with three triangular sides and a triangular base.

Distribute Hoja de actividades 45 and have students design and color their own Mexican pyramid. Have them cut out and glue their pyramids together. Display students' artwork in the classroom.

For additional practice and reinforcement of the skills and concepts presented this week, have students access the Descubre Online activities for this unit and week.

Repasa

- Los saludos y las despedidas.

Aplica Las respuestas varían.

- Soloko o un niño.
- Saludo a una niña.
- Despedida de la señora López.

¡A escribir!

Tema: Mi familia

PLANIFICA

Review and Apply

Have students turn to page 19. Read the topic under Repasa and review with students new concepts and vocabulary learned throughout the week. Skim through previous pages and use Tapetas fotográficas and items from the Manipulatives Kit as necessary.

Informal Assessment

- For the Aplica activity, read the three commands and have individual students stand up and perform one command each.
- When you say Saluda a un niño (Greet a boy), the student should stand up and greet a boy, following the model: ¡Hola! Yo soy... (Hello! My name is...) or Buenas tardes, yo soy... (Good afternoon, my name is...)
- When you say Saluda a una niña (Greet a girl), the student should stand up and greet a girl. Then choose a girl and have her pretend that she is señora López. Explain Despedir de. Have students practice despedirse de using adíos (goodbyes), hasta luego (see you later), and nos vemos (I'll see you).

Day 4

- Be sure that all students participate, and evaluate students' performance.
- Revisit the Essential Question for the week and ask students to answer it using concepts and vocabulary learned during the week.
- Have students open their Cuaderno de práctica to page 7. Read the directions and have students read along with you. Explain the directions and model the activity activities. Then have students complete the page as independent class work or homework.

Culminating Activities PRESENTACIONAL

Writing Process

Students plan what they are going to write by drawing, developing ideas, and organizing their drawings and ideas.

PLANIFICA

- Have students repeat the activity title ¡A escribir! after you. Then have the class read the line Tema: Mi familia. Explain to students that in the next few weeks, they will prepare illustrated stories about their families.
- Briefly mention the four stages of the writing process. Explain that this week they are at the Planificar stage. Discuss the meaning of the stage and ask students to draw a picture of themselves and all their family members on a sheet of paper.

Album de recuerdos

- Explain to students that Anna and Charlie are keeping a scrapbook containing pictures and items they collect of the places they visit. They call it El álbum de recuerdos de Anna y Charlie (Anna and Charlie's scrapbook).
- Tell students that they will create their own álbum de recuerdos as they accompany Anna and Charlie on their travels. Then distribute Hoja de actividades 42 and hand out the blank scrapbooks. Have students label the cover Mi álbum de recuerdos. This can be a home connection activity.
- Explain to students that, to start, they need to draw themselves greeting Tomás. Then they have to cut out the speech bubbles and glue them where they belong in the drawing. When finished, have students glue their recuerdos inside their álbum.

Gramática

El verbo estar

The verb estar (to be) is used to talk about emotions and conditions. These are the forms of estar in the present tense:

VERBO ESTAR (TO BE). PRESENTE

Differentiated Instruction activities in every lesson help reach all students.

Differentiated Instruction

DEVELOPING LEARNERS

- Some students may need help remembering the correct forms of irregular verbs.
- Have students divide a piece of paper in half lengthwise. At the top of both sections, they should write estar.
  - On one half, have them write the subject pronouns evenly spaced down the page.
  - On the other half of the page, right next to each pronoun, students should write the corresponding form of estar.
- They can fold one side under to test their memory of the verb conjugations or subject pronoun and check their work by opening the paper. This can be used for any verb.

EXPANDING LEARNERS

- With adjectives that express emotion, we use the verb estar. If that emotion is a personality trait we use the same word but with ser. Write two headings on the board: Personalidad and Emoción.
- Give some examples: ser aburrido(a) / estar aburrido(a).
- To help students decide when to use estar versus ser, tell them they can use a test to check if an emotion is involved, in which case they would use estar. If the idea can be expressed in English with the verb to feel, then ser is not used. Try this with vocabulary from Desafíos 2 and 4.

HERITAGE LANGUAGE LEARNERS

- Heritage speakers may find that false cognates are especially tricky. Have students form pairs and work together to develop strategies to avoid mistakes in Spanish that stem from translating directly from English.
- What are some of the pitfalls they can encounter? How can they be prepared to

CAPÍTULO I
EN CASA DEL TÍO GEORGE

Son las once de la noche, pero hace calor. En Puerto Rico, rara vez hace frío. Tess y sus hermanos, Karen y David, están en el jardín de la casa del tío George. Es una casa grande y antigua, cerca de San Juan, la capital de Puerto Rico. Allí viven con su tío durante el mes de julio. No tienen clase en la escuela y pueden visitar a su familia en la isla. Sus padres están en San Antonio, Texas. Tienen que trabajar?

George es el hermano de la madre de Tess. Sus hijos se llaman Lisa y Mike. Lisa es una niña pequeña, tiene dos años. En este momento, está en la cama. Mike es un bebé, tiene cinco meses. Hoy está en casa de sus abuelos, los padres de George.

La esposa de George se llama Sandra. Es una pintora famosa. Es una mujer muy creativa. Ahora está en Roma. Allí prepara una exposición de sus cuadros. Por eso, su esposo tiene que cuidar a Mike y a Lisa.

Esta noche el tío George no está en el jardín. Está dentro de la casa, en la sala, delante del televisor. Hay fútbol y ¡él es un fan!

Karen y David escuchan música. Tess lee un libro.

Tess es una chica rubia y guapa. También es simpática y muy espontánea.

Dual-Language and Spanish Language Arts

"For the past 10 years, Santillana USA has been an integral part in making Dual Language programs in the region a success. The authenticity of the Spanish material provides classrooms not only with exposure to an enriched vocabulary but it brings culturally relevant topics that students from all over the world can connect with personally. As a consultant that works with districts implementing bilingual programs, I have seen firsthand how much the students love reading books independently from the children's collection and how much teachers enjoy having a variety of Spanish books and poems to enhance classroom lessons. Thank you for all you do for our students and the development of their Spanish language."

turbulento revuelto
reinciará volver a empezar
suspenso que hace
chirrido ruido desde lo alto; zambullida

Introduce the Tier Two vocabulary words listed above:

- Provide a description, explanation, or example of all the words presented in the vocabulary section. Consider using pictures, sketches, and gestures to explain the meaning of a word. You may also tell a story to integrate some of the terms.

PRE-READING

- Have students share what they know about seeds. ¿Alguna vez han visto una semilla? ¿Qué clase de semilla era? ¿En dónde la vieron? ¿Cómo era? ¿Para qué usamos las semillas? ¿Puede una semilla cambiar? ¿Cómo? ¿Cómo? ¿Cómo? ¿Cómo?
- Ask students: If they have any plants in or around their house. If you have a plant in the classroom, ask for volunteers to describe it. Ask them what they do to help the plants grow, such as placing the plants in sunlight, watering them, planting them in good soil, and so on.
- Ask students to provide examples of words that rhyme in Spanish. For example: lago and fago, lama and rama, color and vapor. Say to the students: Las palabras riman cuando tienen sonidos similares.
- Instruct students to El bacaladado poético (Graphic Organizer #8). Explain that they will identify different types of words, like abstract words. Las palabras abstractas se refieren a cosas que no existen como objetos materiales en el mundo real; como la alegría o el amor. Provide examples of the figurative language categories included in the graphic organizer: personification, metaphor, and simile. Cuando en una historia un objeto puede hablar o controlar una cosa, es un ejemplo de personificación. Cuando decimos que el caballo de una niña es de oro, es una metáfora, pero cuando decimos que Papá Oso era tan grande como un elefante, eso es un símil o una comparación. Invite a instructor con atención la historia para identificar palabras abstractas, palabras que riman, metáforas y símiles.

READING

Read the story aloud to the students. Be sure to demonstrate proper fluency and inflection for students to mimic, emphasizing the rhyming words. Ask them to think very carefully as you read the stanzas and ask questions to themselves about what is happening in the story and the words that they are hearing. Invítenlos que se recuerde en su gran día aburrido. Mentara an.

---	---

Introduce the Tier Two vocabulary words listed above:

- Provide a description, explanation, or example of all the words presented in the vocabulary section. Ask students which words describe objects or characters, and which words describe actions. Ask them if they have used any of these

PRE-READING

- Have students share what they know about seeds. ¿Alguna vez han visto una semilla? ¿Qué clase de semilla era? ¿En dónde la vieron? ¿Cómo era? ¿Para qué usamos semillas? ¿Puede una semilla sufrir cambios? ¿Cómo?
- Ask students: if they have any plants in or around their homes. If you have a plant in the classroom, ask for volunteers to describe it. Ask students how they can help the plants grow, like placing the plants in sunlight, watering them, and planting them in good soil.
- Ask students to provide samples of words that rhyme in Spanish. For example: toco and foco, tema and rama, color and vapor. Tell students: Las palabras riman cuando tienen sonidos finales similares.
- Introduce El buscalotodo poético (Graphic Organizer #9). Explain that you will identify different types of words, like abstract words. Las palabras abstractas se refieren a cosas que no existen como objetos materiales en el mundo real, como la alegría o el amor. Provide examples of the figurative language categories included in the graphic organizer: personification, metaphor, and simile. Cuando en una historia un centilo puede hablar o construir una casa, es un ejemplo de personificación. Cuando decimos que el cabello de una niña es de oro, es una metáfora, pero cuando decimos que Pipá Oso era tan grande como un elefante, eso es un símil o una comparación. Vamos a escuchar con atención la historia para identificar palabras abstractas, palabras que riman, metáforas y símiles.

READING

Read the story aloud. Be sure to demonstrate proper fluency and inflection for students to mimic, emphasizing the rhyming words. Encourage students to think very carefully as they listen to the stanzas you read, and to ask questions to

BEFORE Reading
Prereading Strategy Activating Prior Knowledge

- Introduce the book by reading the title aloud.
- Show children a picture of a dog from a magazine or book. Ask children to share what they know about caring for pets. Ask what is easy and challenging about it.

Introduce the Comprehension Strategy

- Point to the Identificar la idea principal / el mensaje visual on the inside front cover of the book. Say: Hay un ícono a destacar el mensaje del cuento. El mensaje del cuento es algo que el autor quiere que aprendan.
- Draw a web on the board. Label the center circle Message. Label the outer circles Detail.
- Say: Para poder deducir a identificar el mensaje, tenemos que pensar primero en los detalles del cuento. Los detalles son pistas que nos llevan al mensaje. Vamos a trabajar juntos para añadir detalles del cuento a la gráfica.
- With children, use the front cover illustrations and title to gather details about the story. Add one or two details to the web after everyone has read the story.
- Say: Los buenos lectores identifican la idea principal y el mensaje de un texto porque están dispuestos a comprender lo que el autor quiere que aprendan. Ask children to look for details in the story they will read to help them figure out the theme.

DURING Reading
Apply the Comprehension Strategy

- Distribute copies of the book No, Roco! and have children read aloud independently. Encourage children to point to each word as they read.
- When children reach the end of pages 4, 7, and 10, lead them in discussing and answering the following questions to monitor their understanding of the text.

Page 4 Say: ¿Qué dos palabras riman en las páginas 3 y 4?

Page 7 Say: ¿Qué hace Roco para enojarse a la gente? ¿Qué palabras, detalles o pistas en los dibujos los ayudan a comprender esto?

Page 10 Say: ¿Qué hace Roco cuando se porta bien?

AFTER Reading
Review the Comprehension Strategy

- Say: Yo voy a leer. Ahora primero en los detalles. Vamos a escribirlos en nuestra gráfica. Después vamos a usar esas palabras para identificar el mensaje del cuento. ¿Qué detalles debo incluir en la gráfica? ¿Cuál creen que sea el mensaje?
- Model how to identify the theme. With children, revisit the story details you wrote on the board.
- Modeling Example Say: Hay un ícono en los detalles para identificar el mensaje del cuento. Write under Detail: Roco hace cosas que los otros, eso es lo que, rompe los papeles, pide comida, pero también quiere mucho al niño.
- Say: Cuando junto todos los detalles, puedo identificar el mensaje. El autor nos enseña que aunque Roco hace travesuras, es muy cariñoso. Write under Message: Ser cariñoso no te hace una mala persona.
- Remind children that good readers identify the theme by using details or clues. Encourage children to identify the theme during independent reading time.

SOCIAL STUDIES CONNECTION: Compare and contrast Roco's behavior with the behaviors of a familiar character, such as David in David ve el color by David Shannon. Invite children to discuss what it means to have good and bad manners. Have them contribute to a class chart that categorizes good and bad manners.

El Pájaro Verde

—¡Eh! ¿Y quién eres tú? —exclamó un tuacán, sorprendido.

De inmediato, todas aves de aquel rincón de la selva observaron con curiosidad al pájaro de plumas verdes y mirada triste que estaba posado en una caoba. En Tututepec, el Cerro de los Pájaros, nunca se había visto un ave como aquella. Por eso se le acercaron y le pidieron que les dijera cómo había llegado hasta allí.

El Pájaro Verde no se hizo de rogar y empezó a contarles su historia.

¿Cómo es la Tierra en la actualidad?

La Tierra es un planeta muy singular. Su corteza es rocosa, pero bajo esa capa sólida hay otras cuya composición y estado varían considerablemente. Además, está protegida por una envoltura de aire que conforma la atmósfera y la mayor parte de su superficie se halla cubierta de agua.

La forma de la Tierra
Los avances tecnológicos de la actualidad son otra forma de constatar que la Tierra tiene una forma casi esférica. Sin embargo, hace algunos siglos, cuando nadie había logrado dar una vuelta al mundo y no se habían inventado los satélites, algunas personas muy observadoras empezaron a pensar que la Tierra era redonda. Una de las pruebas de la redondez de la Tierra era el hecho de que los barcos, al alejarse, no solo se veían más pequeños, sino que parecían desaparecer con el horizonte. Esto únicamente podía explicarse si la superficie era curva.

¿Cómo sería la Tierra sin atmósfera?
La atmósfera es una envoltura gaseosa que permite la vida, porque contiene los gases que respiramos. Pero además protege a la Tierra de las radiaciones ultravioleta del Sol, que, si llegaran a atravesarla, ocasionarían enfermedades a los seres vivos y aumentarían la temperatura, y también actúa como un escudo ante el impacto de los meteoritos.

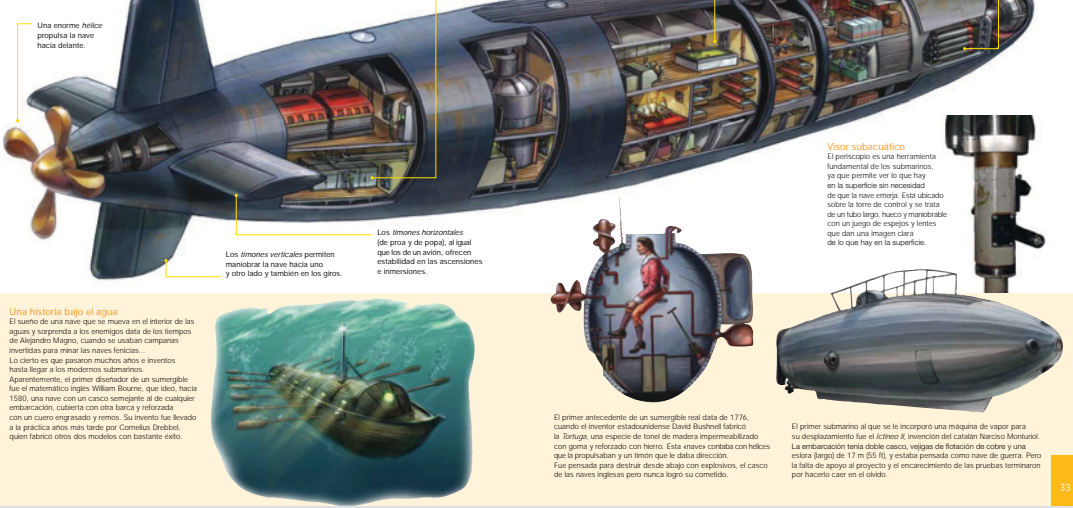

El Abecé Visual de la Tierra

¿Por qué se sumerge un submarino?

Los submarinos están compuestos por dos cascos. El interno es resistente, de forma cilíndrica, y contiene los compartimentos. Por fuera de este casco hay otro con la forma hidrodinámica característica. Entre los dos existen cámaras que se llenan de agua para que la embarcación pese más y se sumerja, o se vacían de agua y se llenan de aire para que esta ascienda y emerja a la superficie. Esta regulación se hace mediante la apertura y el cierre de las esclusas situadas en el casco externo.

Navas autosuficientes
Los primeros submarinos eran simples sumergibles que no podían pasar demasiado tiempo bajo el agua, pues debían abastecer a sus tripulantes de oxígeno y agua potable. Navegaban sobre la superficie y solo se sumergían cuando iban a atacar una nave. Hoy en día, gracias a la energía nuclear, los reactores que mueven estas embarcaciones también recogen el oxígeno y el agua permitiendo que la nave solo salga cuando hacen provisiones para los tripulantes.

Sobre la torre de mando emergen las antenas de comunicación y el periscopio. Cuando un submarino emerge, la torre de mando es el único sector que se ve sobre la superficie. Es una nave de guerra: en su proa se encuentran alineados los torpedos y misiles nucleares, listos para ser disparados.

¿De dónde sale la ropa?
Chris Butterworth

El chicle tiene un sabor riquísimo a cereza artificial, y de camino a casa van haciendo enormes bombas con él, los tres juntos. Lina hace las bombas más grandes.

Y Marcos tiene la sensación de que ya nada puede salir mal. Se disculpó con Ole y habló con Lina. Ahora sólo le falta enseñarle a su mamá el cuaderno de Mate. Y tal vez en algún momento saltar del trampolín de tres metros. Pero seguro que lo va a conseguir. Siempre que lo desee de verdad.

¿QUÉ PUEDES HACER CUANDO TIENES MIEDO?

Existen varias maneras de enfrentarnos a nuestros temores.

1. Algunos miedos se van por sí solos cuando estamos acompañados o recibimos ayuda.
2. A veces es suficiente con hablar de tus temores, con un amigo o con tus padres, para que se hagan más pequeños o desaparezcan por completo. Juntos pueden encontrar alguna solución.
3. Otras veces, podemos enfrentarnos a nuestro miedo poco a poco.
4. Y también es posible entrenarse: cuantas más veces hagas algo que te dé miedo, más sencillo te parecerá la próxima vez. ¡Seguro!
5. Algunos miedos desaparecen cuando nos hacemos mayores: hay cosas que hoy te dan un miedo terrible y puede ser que para tu próximo cumpleaños sólo te hagan reír.

¿DE QUÉ ESTÁN HECHOS TUS JEANS?

Tus jeans están hechos de algodón, que crece en arbustos.

Una semilla de algodón necesita mucho sol y mucha agua para crecer hasta convertirse en arbusto.

Un capullo tarda en florecer alrededor de diez semanas. Cuando la flor muere, una cápsula o vaina de algodón se hincha y madura.

En unas semanas más, la vaina se abre y las fibras, suaves y blancas como la nieve, se inflan. Las cápsulas se recogen a mano o con una máquina.

El algodón y las semillas entran. Luego una máquina de desmotado separa las semillas enredadas en las fibras de algodón. Con el algodón limpio se hacen pacas que se llevan a una fábrica hiladora.

Las semillas salen.

El algodón entra. Las fibras se cardan.

1. Las fibras de algodón se pasan por rodillos con agujas de acero que las peinan y allisan. A esto se le llama cardar. Con las fibras cardadas se hace una cuerda gruesa y suavecita.

2. A continuación, la máquina hiladora estira las fibras... las retuerce y forma hebras individuales llamadas hilo.

3. En otro molino, el hilo se tñe en un baño de tinte azul... y queda listo para tejer con él una tela.

¿Qué miedo!

—Sí, es por tu pierna —dijo Pandora.

Naviero se quitó la colcha y se quedó atónito cuando vio que tenía la pierna izquierda vendada y entablillada desde la rodilla hasta el pie.

—¡Cielos! —dijo—. Pero no siento nada; ¿no debería tener mucho dolor?

Pandora sonrió complacida.

—Soy una especie de médica —dijo—. He estudiado las propiedades de las plantas y sé cuáles son curativas. Te envolví la pierna en hojas de plátano para aliviar la hinchazón. Y las tablillas ayudarán a sanar la fractura.

—¡Asombroso! —dijo Naviero.

Pandora se sonrojó con orgullo.

—¿Y estás sola aquí? —preguntó Naviero, mientras bebía su té a sorbos.

Ahora Pandora también se había servido una taza de té.

—Sí, completamente sola —dijo—, aunque tengo amigos que vi-tirón de prueba. Se movió un poco. Había sido clavado dentro con bastante fuerza, pero con algo de insistencia podría liberarlo.

Mientras empezaba a aflojarlo, Joseph pensó haber oído un ruido en la base del árbol y se detuvo. Había tantas ramas entre él y el suelo que no podía ver nada más que pequeños trozos de hierba surgiendo por los huecos entre las hojas.

Pensó en gritar un saludo pero no quiso alertar a nadie de su presencia. Si su mamá lo pillaba ahí arriba nunca escucharía el final de la historia y, después de todo, si él no podía verlos, ellos tampoco podrían verlo a él. Siguió entonces soltando el broche y después de unos segundos lo tenía sobre la palma de la mano.

Esta vez no podía haber duda. Joseph escuchó con claridad un gemido bajo, como si un tipo de animal se encontrara en la base del árbol, pero ningún tipo de animal que pudiera reconocer, a menos que un oso se hubiera escapado de un zoológico cercano.

Entonces se le ocurrió que podría tratarse de Jess; que se encontraba quizás muy malherida y gemía por el esfuerzo de arrastrarse de vuelta.

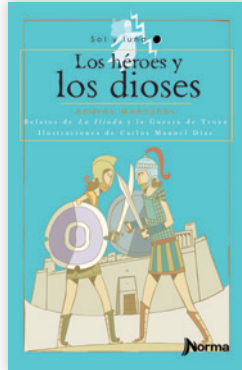

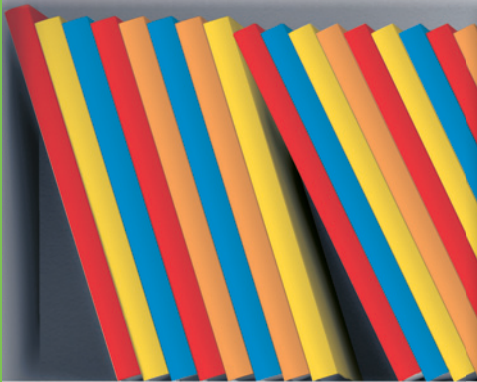

—¡Jess! —llamó—. ¿Eres tú, muchacha? Pero no era Jess. Lo que fuera que estaba haciendo el ruido ya no se encontraba al pie del árbol, sino que había empezado a trepar. Pudo escuchar el ruido de algo golpeando

SOL y LUNA

Indignado por el ataque del héroe griego, Apolo llamó entonces a Ares, el dios de la guerra, y le contó cómo un mortal se había atrevido a atacarlo y había herido a la hermosa Afrodita. Ares, al oír sus palabras, bajó al campo de batalla y tomando la forma de un guerrero troiano animó a los hijos de Príamo a que lucharan con valor en contra de los griegos.

Ares y Héctor se abalanzaron contra las tropas de Agamenón y sus aliados, causándoles muchas bajas, pues había muy pocos que pudieran resistir el ataque del príncipe de Troya cuando tenía a un dios a su lado. El mismo Diomedes tuvo que alejarse del combate, porque la herida que Pándaro le había hecho en el hombro había comenzado a dolerle de nuevo.

Pero Atenea estaba decidida a evitar la derrota de los griegos y, entrando de nuevo en el campo de batalla, inspiró a los guerreros a que resistieran y fue en busca de Diomedes que estaba descansando y curando sus heridas.

—¿Por qué evitas luchar contra los troyanos? —le preguntó la diosa—. ¿Acaso no has sido hoy el más valiente de todos?

Diomedes le explicó que había huido porque Ares luchaba con los troyanos y ella misma le había ordenado que no combatiera con los dioses. Atenea le dijo entonces que no temiera enfrentarse con el dios de la guerra, porque ella misma iría a su lado. Así volvió Diomedes por tercera vez a la batalla, inspirado por Atenea y decidido a enfrentarse con los dioses mismos.

LAUNCHING THE UNIT

GATEWAYS TO ART

PLANT THE SEEDS

Design a bulletin board that encapsulates the values and key objectives of the Art Series as they are explored throughout the unit.

The bulletin board becomes a metaphoric garden where ideas are planted and knowledge and student productivity are harvested. This is a tremendous tool to create an interactive, child-centered environment to launch the theme of the unit. You may want to use the model below as an inspiration for your Art bulletin board.

¿Qué es el arte? Engage students in a discussion about what art is. Ask them whether they like to paint or draw, and what they feel when they are making their paintings or drawings. Discuss the purposes of art, from the artist's own enjoyment and pleasure, to decoration and social purposes. Invite them to brainstorm types of art other than drawings and paintings and list them on the board. Besides the multiple forms of plastic arts, the list might include architecture, dance, music, theater, and even music. Accept all answers as valid.

Explain that art has existed since the first human beings existed. All people in all places and times have created their own forms of art, and have created and recreated beauty through drawings, objects, clothing, buildings, and various utensils.

Tell students that the works of art that they are going to view in Azul y verde will provide them with opportunities to learn about different techniques, styles, and subjects used by several important artists of Hispanic origins. This is a new opportunity to get to know people who have enriched the culture of the millions of people who speak Spanish in the world.

¡Abramos las puertas! Motivate students to create their own reduced version of the bulletin board in which they record notes, sketches, sayings, summaries, citations from the book, elaboration and amplifications that connect the knowledge learned as they look at and examine the works of art presented in the Art series of Puertas al sol. Students may use this "map of learning" as a cover of a portfolio or a personal collection of work and activities developed throughout this unit.

About the authors...

Alma Flor Ada is the award-winning author of more than 200 books for children. She is also a poet, storyteller, educator, mother, and grandmother. With a Ph.D. in literature and a lifelong love for stories, Ada has mastered the art of retelling traditional folktales and nursery rhymes from across Latin America. She's won several awards including the 2000 Pura Belpré Award and Ohtli Award in 2014. A native of Cuba who has also lived in Spain, Peru, and the United States, Alma Flor Ada writes poetry, picture books, and novels that offer rich, multicultural perspectives for all children.

F. Isabel Campoy is the author of numerous children's books in the areas of poetry, theatre, stories, biographies, and art. She is an educator specializing in the areas of literacy and home-school interaction, topics on which she lectures nationally. She is the recipient of numerous awards, among them the Junior Guild Award, ALA Notable Book Award, San Francisco Library Award, and the 2005 Reading the World Award from the University of San Francisco.

ELD/Intervention

"Spotlight on English introduces and reinforces new concepts, while also increasing vocabulary. It also exposes students to grade level academic vocabulary and provides models of Standard English. One thing that many teachers have found very beneficial is the lessons provide strategies and activities that help differentiate for the proficiency levels. Another aspect that many teachers appreciate is the activities in the following four domains to increase proficiency: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. One of my favorite aspects is the Pre-Test and Post-test, which provide data that shows student growth...and aligns with Common Core Standards and WIDA standards."

Active Reading Questioning Strategies
READING COMPREHENSION

Developing

- Recall Why does Raúl want to skip breakfast? Remind students that recall questions ask them about something they have just read in the text.

Expanding

- Comparing and Contrasting How is Dad's view of breakfast different from Raúl's? Explain to students that comparing is telling how two or more things, events, or characters are alike, and contrasting is telling how two or more things, events, or characters are different.

More Complex

- Making Inferences Why might Dad want Raúl to think about last week's game? Remind students that when they make inferences, they use clues from the text and what they already know to figure out something that is not directly stated or explained.

Narrator 1: Raúl stopped at the kitchen door.
Raúl: Dad, I'm not really hungry after all. I want to go outside and practice my swing.
Dad: Raúl, I really think you should eat breakfast. You're going to need all the energy you can get.
Raúl: No, I'll be fine.
Dad: I'm not so sure about that. Remember last week's game?

Health and Lifestyle

Active Reading Questioning Strategies
READING COMPREHENSION

Developing

- Recall How did Raúl start feeling in the third inning?

Expanding

- Main Idea and Details What details support the idea that Raúl was tired? Explain to students that the main idea is the most important point the author makes in a story or paragraph. In order to support the main idea, authors use details in other sentences that may describe, give reasons and definitions, and provide other types of information. Here, two details that support the idea that Raúl is tired are "His feet began to feel like steel weights" and "His bat felt like a ton of bricks."

More Complex

- Sequence What events happened in the fourth inning? Use the words first, next, and last to tell the events. Explain to students that sequence questions ask about the order of events in a story or a scene.

Spotlight on Content

Ideal pull-in, push-out, after-school, and summer school program

Supplemental literacy program provides students with rigorous reading practice and reinforces content-area concepts, vocabulary, and structures.

- Literacy activities focus on vocabulary development, oral language development, and reading comprehension and fluency.
- Literary and informational texts become gradually more complex and provide vocabulary, skills, facts, and background knowledge in science and social studies.

Writing Sentences

Choose words and write four sentences.

I	read	in the library.
He	reads	in the classroom.
She	paint	in the art center.
We	paints	on the playground.
They	write

Professional Development

“The AATSP is extremely proud of its partnership with Santillana USA to provide professional development opportunities for Spanish instructors at all levels. As a result of our joint venture, teachers are able to participate in low-cost, high-quality workshops, seminars, and webinars, offered within traditional conference venues as well as online. Together the AATSP and Santillana USA hope to expand language and cultural proficiency, upgrade pedagogical skills, and advocate for long-sequence, well-articulated, content-driven Spanish programs.”

—Emily Spinelli
Executive Director, American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese (AATSP)

ESL/ELD, Bilingual, and
Dual-Language Sessions Page 156

Santillana PD offers high-quality, research-based professional development opportunities. We know that every district has unique professional development needs and we work closely with school districts to provide customized sessions in the areas of Spanish as a World Language, Spanish for heritage and native speakers, bilingual/dual-language education, and meeting the needs of English Language Learners. We also offer pedagogical sessions that focus on first and second language acquisition theory and practice, applied linguistics, methods of teaching reading in a second language, and other key topics that assist in the professional development of highly qualified K-12 Spanish and ESL/ELD teachers.

Professional Development Sessions

SPANISH AS A WORLD LANGUAGE & SPANISH FOR NATIVE SPEAKERS

Metodología de la enseñanza de español como lengua extranjera en la primaria*

978-1-61605-395-6 | Level: K-5

This session explores the basic principles of foreign language teaching as they apply to the teaching of Spanish in the elementary classroom and to the learning processes that are associated with second language acquisition, communicative competency, and cultural competency. Participants discuss effective techniques for assessing and evaluating students and learn about resources available to enhance teaching and learning Spanish at the elementary level.

* Offered in Spanish

Gramática y ortografía para la escuela primaria y secundaria (Grammar, Spelling, and Punctuation for Elementary and Secondary Spanish Teachers)

978-1-61605-398-7 | Level: K-5

978-1-61605-399-4 | Level: 6-12

This session addresses common grammatical issues secondary Spanish heritage learners encounter and strategies to help address them. Participants benefit from a review and clarification of basic and advanced grammatical and linguistic concepts, including the teaching and learning of spelling and punctuation, verb conjugations, common grammatical and linguistic inaccuracies, and common errors of heritage speakers living in the U.S. (e.g. Spanish/English false cognates, accent rules, language variation, etc.).

Metodología de la enseñanza del español como lengua materna*

978-1-63113-592-7 | Levels K-12

The session provides teachers of heritage Spanish speakers with research-based instructional strategies proven effective when teaching heritage Spanish speakers. Participants learn about the influence of culture on teaching and learning: cross-cultural learning on cultural identity, the transcultural experience, cultural competency and mediation, and cross-cultural communication. The session also explores six categories of language learning strategies: cognitive, metacognitive, memory-related, compensatory, affective, and social (Oxford, 2001).

Learning in Three Modes: Building Communicative Competence in the Spanish World Language Classroom

978-1-68292-243-9

Participants will learn effective instructional strategies to develop student competence in the Interpersonal, Interpretive and Presentational modes of communication as set out in the World-Readiness Standards for Learning Languages (ACTFL, 2015). The session will include suggestions for selecting materials, designing effective activities, and managing the new demands of the communicative classroom.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SESSIONS

Foreign Language Methods

978-1-61435-582-3

Session participants explore basic principles of foreign language teaching and learning processes. This session also familiarizes teachers with the resources available to enhance the teaching and learning of Spanish as a foreign language in the secondary classroom, including textbooks and ancillaries, manipulatives, both controlled Spanish readers and authentic Spanish language literature, technology and Internet resources, and teacher-made materials. Participants learn about, discuss, and model effective techniques for assessing and evaluating Spanish as foreign language students in secondary schools.

Online sessions also available.

Metodología de la comprensión lectora y estrategias para el lector incipiente*

978-1-61435-583-0

This session explains the importance of integrating reading comprehension with the development of higher thinking skills. Participants learn and discuss the three main reading skills students must develop: (1) recognize the meaning of a word or phrase within the context of the other ideas presented in the text; (2) identify and understand basic reading forms (beginning, development, resolution; reading genres, types of reading selections, etc.) and (3) identify the relationships between the ideas presented in a reading selection in order to analyze and synthesize the information.

* Offered in Spanish

Intensive Summer Spanish Language and Cultural Institute

ESL/ELD, BILINGUAL, AND DUAL-LANGUAGE SESSIONS

Reading Strategies for the Second Language Classroom (ESL/ELD)

978-1-60396-705-1 | Level: K–12

The acquisition of reading skills is vital to the development of literacy in any language. This session discusses pre-, during-, and post-reading strategies and approaches that make scaffolded reading instruction comprehensible to ALL students, especially students who have had interrupted formal education (SIFE). Participants learn the appropriate use of high-interest, low-difficulty reading selections.

Sheltered Instruction Strategies for Language and Content Workshop*

Level: K–12

Session focuses on language and content sheltered instruction and explores proven-effective, research-based planning tools for working with ELLs in elementary classrooms or secondary content area classrooms. This is a three-day session workshop (full days), presented either concurrently or separately.

*$3,500 per day for 35 participants. $50 per day for each additional participant.

Session 1 (Day 1) 978-1-62263-144-5

Participants learn effective strategies for planning and preparation: how to select and use appropriate basal and supplemental instructional materials, adapt content to different levels of ELL proficiency, and deliver lessons. They also learn about comprehensible input, and how it is used to inform explanations of academic tasks, and the application of a variety of classroom techniques to make content concepts clear (such as modeling, visuals, hands-on activities, demonstrations, experiments, gestures, and body language).

Session 2 (Day 2) 978-1-62263-145-2

Participants learn how to use effective teaching strategies to ensure comprehensible input. They create content and language objectives and opportunities for students to use learning strategies themselves. Participants also learn a variety of scaffolding techniques, including literacy support and the consistent use of scaffolding throughout instruction.

Session 3 (Day 3) 978-1-62263-146-9

Participants learn to incorporate additional teaching strategies that focus on building background knowledge and activating prior knowledge, such as grouping configurations that support both language and content learning and clarifications in both L1 and L2. They also learn how to incorporate practice and application activities that reinforce language and content objectives and explore ways to review the objectives, including targeted vocabulary (both subject area/technical and academic vocabulary) and key concepts and ideas. The session also addresses the use of formative and summative assessments to evaluate students.

Theory and Practice of Language Acquisition

9781631135934 | Levels K–12

The session focuses on the current research framework that supports high-quality, effective teaching and learning practices in the classroom: First v. Second Language Acquisition, Factors that Affect Language Acquisition in the Classroom, the Affective Filter, Language Proficiency and Leveling, Thomlinson's Differentiated Instruction, and others. Participants explore teaching and learning strategies based on this framework, and are presented with hands-on, classroom-tested examples, as well as samples of instructional materials that support this methodological framework.

Introduction to Dual Language Education: Key Features and Best Practices

978-1-68292-106-7

CAL and Santillana USA are launching a new interactive, self-paced online course designed to provide a comprehensive introduction to dual-language education with a focus on the Three Pillars of Dual Language Education used by successful programs.

ESL/ELD, BILINGUAL, AND DUAL-LANGUAGE SESSIONS (CONT'D.)

Comprehensible Input and its Implications to the Bilingual, ESL, and Spanish Classroom

9781631135941 | Levels K–12

This session focuses on Second Language Acquisition theories as presented by researchers (Krashen, 1981; Krashen & Terrell, 1983), including Jim Cummins’s distinction between two types of language: basic interpersonal communications skills (BICS) and cognitive academic language proficiency (CALP). Participants learn how these theories can help develop effective instructional strategies and assessments that guide students along a continuum of language development—from cognitively undemanding, context-embedded curricula to cognitively demanding, context-reduced curricula (Robson, 1995).

Instructional Learning Strategies for the Bilingual/ESL Classroom

9781631135958 | Levels K–12

This session explores the meaning of bilingualism and effective bilingual language program models, including transitional, dual-language, one-way and two-way bilingual, among others. Participants examine key factors in the development of bilingual programs, implementation issues, materials that most effectively support L1 and L2 oral language and literacy development, and common transferable elements of L1 to L2 literacy. Participants learn how to develop effective instructional units and compare, contrast, and evaluate examples of curriculum mapping, lesson designs, and model lessons.

Principles of Interactive Instruction

9781631135965 | Levels K–12

This session explores activity-based teaching and focuses on how teachers can recognize what each learner brings to the classroom and the role they play in their own language acquisition process. Since research on learning and memory (Sprengr, 1999), on language acquisition and language learning (Cameron, 2001), and on the functions of the brain (Genesee, 2000) confirms ELLs are actively constructing schema (organizational structures of language and content) and meaning, instruction should motivate students to take active roles in their own learning. Participants will learn how communicative teaching and learning focuses on authentic, comprehensible, and interactive communication through a variety of channels: teacher/student, student/teacher, student/student, student/students, etc.

Developing Cross-Cultural Awareness and Multicultural Understanding

9781631135972 | Levels K–12

This session explores the importance of multiculturalism and pluralism in the classroom and ways to better understand and serve different student populations. Participants examine Banks’s (1997) dimensions of multicultural education and discuss the importance of cultural differences, strategies to appropriately respond to these differences, how cultural differences may impact learning in math, science, and social studies; and how to apply these principles to their own instruction.

Dual Language Education Fundamentals Workshop

Featuring the Guiding Principles for Dual Language Education

978-1-68292-106-7

The one-day workshop, presented by experts from the Center for Applied Linguistics and Santillana USA, explores the research base and key components of dual-language programming and instruction through the lens of the widely used Guiding Principles for Dual Language Education. Participants learn the fundamentals of dual-language education, discover best practices, and identify goals for developing or enhancing an effective DL program on their campus.
